

ACHIEVEMENT DAY CELEBRATION

February 8, 2019

"Happiness lies in the joy of achievement and the thrill of creative effort."

_ Franklin D. Roosevelt

Awards are a way to encourage good behavior and inculcate competitive spirit. As every child is born with some unique talents, if she is given a proper atmosphere she can flourish and become an empowered person in life. This is the reason why Auxilium girls' School, Agartala organizes award ceremony every year to encourage its students. Many small milestones in life is what makes an individual prepare harder for his future and also work with even more greater zeal in the present. 8th august 2019 was a day dedicated solely for the purpose to celebrate the many milestones of auxiliarians in all the co-curricular activities held in the academic session 2018-2019 and also to reward some special students who stood out as an example. It was one of the most awaited moments of the year.

The beautiful celebration of achievements was graced by the presence of the honorable chief justice of Tripura shri Subhashish Talapatra who indeed inspired us with his words of wisdom,

Shri. Abhijit Samajpati, shri. Pranab Sarkar and Shri. A. K Reang as our Guests of honor and many other eminent personalities and parent representatives whose presence we deeply have a high regard for. The programme began with a melodious welcoming song entitled 'Reach out to the sky' which enlivened the spirit of everyone as they eagerly waited for the moment to receive their awards. This was followed by a moment of prayer invoking the presence of God, the Almighty and the lighting of the lamp which symbolizes the presence of the Divine in our midst. True to the spirit of Auxilium which makes people feel at home, we had the felicitation ceremony coordinated by Sr. Ablrida Pyngrope ,our Principal which was followed by the inspiring message of Sr. Celine D'Cunha our Director on the significance of Achievement day.

The awards were given out based on a wide range of subjects - the winners of the Quiz competition, story writing and story-telling competition, essay writing competition, inter class singing and dance competition, news reading competition, poetry composing competition, flower making and flower arranging competition, salad making competition, drawing and poster making competition, club demonstration competition and so on. . The awards were given in different categories keeping in mind the unique talents of each child. Their confidence to excel in different fields was hence boost up. The awards were given by the honorable guests and invitees who were present for the celebration.

In order to make the program colorful and delightful there were few cultural item; Tripuri dance, Bengali dance and the Karate performance which add taste to the celebration. It was indeed a privilege for us that we had the opportunity to listen to the beautiful message of our

Honorable Chief Guest - Justice Shri. Subhashish Talapatra, who addressed the Auxilians from his heart, when he expressed his admiration towards the school and its contribution towards the development of the students especially for the keen interest that the school took in promoting Unity in diversity and the values inculcated in the students. He also appealed to all students to keep the values that are enshrined in the Constitution and to uphold its beauty and the richness and diversity of our beloved Country India.

The Achievement day included special Awards for the day which consisted of the Best class, Best House, Best Club, Best Notice Board, Best Leaders, Best writers, Most helpful student and the Best Orator. On the Achievement day the school makes sure to award all those students who have taken an extra mile in performing good works in uplifting the standard and values lived in their everyday life. One of the most awaited moments of the day was the declaration of the student of the year from Class XII and Class X. It was a proud moment for all of us to have Romita Roy of Class XII and Sayesha Debbarma of Class X as Students of the Year. Auxilium has always focused on all round development of a student and events like these acts like a glitter that always help us shine out as our true selves. Not all could manage to get an a award but this didn't deter anybody's spirit in fact everyone was more than happy to cheer for one another as auxilium has always taught that participation is always the key , winning and losing is just the mere aspect of it.

The memorable day concluded with the dance drama on "The Father of Our Nation - Mahatma Gandhi" as we celebrated his 150th birth anniversary . With pride in our hearts and determination to give our best and more we ended the celebration of our Achievement day of the academic year 2018-19.

Gloria Reang (XI-A) and Nilashma Choudhury (XI-C)