

AUXILIUM GIRLS' SCHOOL - AGARTALA

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

April 27, 2019

(School Captain).

The Investiture Ceremony was celebrated by the Auxilians to bestow the designation of the various captains officially while they pledged to perform their leadership well. This special day was celebrated on April 27, 2019 in the presence of Shri Shaillish Kumar Yadav , IAS as the Chief Guest, Mrs. Neelam Dalal , Principal of the Army School as the Guest of Honor , and Shri Abhijit Samajpati , Shri Anthony Debbarma, Parents of Miss Poushali Chakma (Head Girl), Parents of Miss Priya Debbarma

Firstly, the event was a great success, It began with the melody of tunes by the Auxilium Choir – “I AM A GIRL”, which was indeed very apt for empowering women. The occasion started with the blessings of The Almighty through the verses taken from the Holy Bible. The Lighting of the Lamp by the respected Dignitaries accompanied by the School Principal: Sr. Albrida Pyngrope, and some Student representatives officially marked the beginning of the celebration.

Shortly, after that, all the Guests and Invitees were warmly welcomed by the Director of the school: Sr. Celine D’Cunha. Next, came the most awaited moment which was the Pledge Taking Ceremony by the captains coordinated by Sr. Rihun Sten (Vice Principal), Mr. Joydeep Sarkar and Miss Ankita Sengupta, where all the leaders took their pledge with full spirit and sense of responsibility that they will give their best in whatever they do.

The Chief Guest and Guest of honor expressed their great joy to have an opportunity to witness the pledge of young students to do their best as leaders in the school and during the messages they encourage the students to take their responsibility of becoming great leaders who will inspire others by their life and to move ahead in life with great virtues and values.

The programme was a blend of various colours, cultures, traditions and rhythm and students took part with great enthusiasm in presenting their program joyfully as the leaders pledge to live to their responsibility as captains of the different groups. The programme was concluded with a gesture of gratefulness expressed by Mr. Kaushik Saha staff member and the colourful dance steps of “Vande Mantaram” and the National Anthem to show our love and respect for our Mother land India.
