

Commemoration of Blessed Laura Vicuña

Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose

“Suffer silently and smile always” is the motto that the red house always carries along with it. Reminiscing the contribution and the sacrifice of their great patron Laura Vicuña, Auxilium girls’ celebrated the feast of Blessed Laura Vicuña the great model and heroin of youthful life. To honour their patron, the red house members conducted a special assembly in the playground.

Along with the commemoration of Laura Vicuña the school celebrated the great freedom fighter Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose whose birthday is tomorrow. The assembly began with introductory lines about Laura Vicuña followed by a short prayer invoking the presence and the blessing of God. As our Director Sr. Celine D’Cunha, our Principal Sr. Albrida Pyngrope, the teacher’s representative and the captain of the red house pay homage to the two great figures; the choir group of the red house along with the sisters sang two songs commemorating the two great legendary figures and their contributions. A speech narrated the life story, the struggles of Laura Vicuña and her contribution to the human society was delivered after the felicitation. A thought of the day was presented in the assembly to make the celebration more momentous.

The memorable morning was concluded with words of gratitude towards everyone by the captain of the red house on behalf of its members. The whole Audience in a jubilant and appreciative manner sang the National Anthem.
