

Online Creativity Week - 2020

"The desire to create is one of the deepest yearnings of the human soul." -- Dieter F. Uchtdorf

The creativity week in Auxilium Girls' School, Agartala held from 5th – 12th October 2020 started with a boom! The Covid19 pandemic could not cast its spell over Auxilians rather found out a way and hence has gone digital this year. It has been always a challenge to come up with a justified platform for the creative students of this era and Auxilium Girls' School, Agartala is that platform that's second to none in justifying the same. The managements and the teachers are always in an effort to bring out the best of each student in Auxilium so that they do not become merely a robot but student who knows to think creatively and read critically and be ready for the World of tomorrow which demands a creative mind.

The entire school beamed up with buzzing talents and participation is beyond compare. The creativity week in Auxilium is one of the most happening events. It is a week-long series of competition ranging from dance to singing, literary to art activities, drama, and music and to name few out of the listed competitions are Clay Modeling, Drawing, Card Making, Flower Making, Salad Making, Video (PPT) Making, Essays Writing, Creative writing, Report writing, Fancy Dress, Dancing and Singing, Calligraphy, Poem Recitation, Poem Composition, Joke Composition, Friendship-Band Making and many more where each event is being inspired by various themes mostly based on humanity, the care for the environment, the poor, the migrants, salutation to the warrior of Covid 19 and so on.

The competition activities are not only focused on winning but aims in nurturing the young and talented minds with integral growth and self-exploration which is the need of the hour and creativity is the way of survival in the days ahead.

Each student enthusiastically records her performance and the same was sent to the class teachers. The students were graded according to their performance and the better ones were selected among the participants and sent to the judges for the final decision. An e-certificate was given to the winners. With enormous number of participations, the week was a resounding success and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone!
